

Member Spotlight - Maggie Hood

My name is... Maggie Hood.

I am from... earth.

I got my start in the industry... in the year 2012.

I am currently working on/as... two screenplays; co-writing a memoir; curriculum for the very young learner (piano).

The project or projects on which I've most enjoyed working are... I love them all. I could tell you which are my bombs, no problem, but I don't dwell on those.

MN WIFT can impact women in the film, television and new media industries by... providing the discreet ester of estrogen, sharing and synergizing our perculiar and oh-so-potent sensibilities; putting reality into the vapidty of the male howtowing industry and media.

I am inspired by... every breath I am allowed. And water.

My hobbies or special interests are... clean water, swimming, media, the North Shore, roller blading, Ginastera's piano works, Messiaen's, too, but I can't play them anymore.

In ten years I see myself... more and more transparent.
